KATIE BROPHY MILES

"As a former coach at an elite university in the US, I can't promote this opportunity enough. Each participant will compete in some of the BEST golf tournaments in the world. They will visit 10 universities and experience life on campus." Katie Brophy Miles, Golf Globally, LLC

After 6 years as Head Women's Golf Coach at Georgetown University, Katie stepped down this past May 2017. She has started her own consulting call Golf Globally and finishing her Ph.D. at the Indiana University in 2018. Kaite came to the Georgetown in the summer of 2011 after serving as an assistant coach at Indiana University for five years. Katie earned her bachelor's degree from Notre Dame in 2006, was a three-time All-BIG EAST selection and a four-time National Golf Coaches Association (NGCA) Scholar-Athlete. While at Indiana, Katie's duties included on-course coaching, recruiting and oversight of the budget, in addition to running the team's home tournament and various alumni events. She helped lead the Hoosiers to three top-five finishes at the Big Ten Championships over the last five years and to three postseason appearances, including playing host to the 2010 NCAA Central Regional. Five golfers earned all-league honors during that span

A native of Spokane, Wash., Katie graduated from Notre Dame in 2006, earning a degree in sociology while enjoying an outstanding playing career. A two-time captain, she recorded a school-record three tournament victories during her playing career, earning medalist honors at the 2005 Jeannine McHaney Invitational/Central Regional Preview, the 2003 BIG EAST Championship and the 2002 Peggy Kirk Bell Invitational.

In addition, Katie earned her master's degree in athletic administration/sport management from Indiana in 2009. In December 2010, Katie finished the coursework for her Ph.D., in human performance with an emphasis in sport management and a minor in telecommunications.
